To strengthen our design team, we are looking for an

Senior Design Strategist

Start Date: April 2019

What we are looking for

As a Senior Design Strategist, you will join a multidisciplinary design team to identify strategic growth with new customers. With your design, business or strategy background – you can work and think systematically to simplify complex problems into convincing and innovative design and business solutions. You have a great knowledge of design methodologies, you are passionate and an experienced strategist with a keen eye for details, you have the skillset to turn visions into reality? Then you are the right candidate to join the N+P Team.

Your profile

- Degree in design, business, strategy, marketing or other relevant fields
- 4+ years of experience in corporate strategy, product management, consulting, etc.
- Excellent verbal, writing and presentation skills – feeling comfortable in presenting in front of C-Level executives
- Strong experience in leading workshops for influencing clients; debate, discuss and defend our work
- Proficiency in understanding people, business, technology and clients
- Strong organizational and time management skills - experience in leading design projects and creative teams
- Analytical & methodical thinking paired with expertise in research up to design thinking methods (creating personas, customer journeys, insight opportunities, scenarios, etc.)
- Team player with high curiosity and willingness to learn and grow
- German proficiency is an advantage but not a must

What we offer

- Exciting projects in a globally operating design studio
- A broad spectrum of industries: Mobility, Consumer, Medical, Industry 4.0
- Open communication, flat hierarchies, and an interdisciplinary team
- An inspiring workplace in the heart of Munich next to the English Garden & Isar
- Great team-spirit, events and spontaneous after-work gatherings, and backyard table-tennis action during the summer
